

STRENGTHS

-  Calm Field Judgment
During stressful calls, selected humane containment methods quickly and kept residents informed, helping tense scenes stay controlled.
-  Public Communication
Surrender discussions could become emotional, yet clear explanations and patient listening helped residents understand available shelter options.
-  Detailed Documentation
Case notes, activity logs, and disposition records stayed organized for supervisors, follow up work, and court review.
-  Safe Animal Handling
Peers relied on careful use of catch poles, nets, graspers, and live traps when animals were frightened or difficult to reach.
-  Shelter Reliability
Daily kennel care, feeding, watering, and sanitation received steady attention, even during demanding weather and shift assignments.
