SUMMARY

Virginia licensed attorney with more than seven years of experience handling complex real estate transactions, affordable housing development, public finance, and local government counseling. Leads acquisitions, dispositions, development agreements, construction financing, permanent debt, and layered affordable housing closings from initial structure through execution. Directs title, survey, zoning, environmental, organizational, and regulatory due diligence, then turns findings into practical closing conditions and negotiated protections. Advises public agencies, housing organizations, lenders, developers, and governing officials on Low Income Housing Tax Credits, CDBG, Housing Choice Vouchers, fair housing, landlord tenant matters, procurement, and public finance. Presents concise legal research and risk analysis to decision makers, independently manages concurrent deadlines, and coordinates complex document sets through closing. Brings sound transactional judgment and public service focus to sophisticated local government matters.
