Dear Hiring Manager,

I am excited to apply for the Banquet Garde Manger Supervisor position at Eden Hospitality Group, where my extensive culinary experience finds a perfect home in your luxurious setting, ensuring every guest enjoys a memorable dining adventure crafted with genuine care and artistry.

My role at Ocean View Catering involves working alongside creative event planners, suggesting unique menus that cater precisely to individual tastes and dietary needs, which has proven essential in constructing both satisfaction and trust with clients, another unwavering commitment I plan to contribute to at your esteemed property.

There were challenges, of course; moments when pressure peaked, yet I embraced these opportunities to grow, honing my abilities to mentor junior staff effectively while ensuring our operations not only met health standards but also surpassed guests' expectations through timely, engaging service.

Community thrives on teamwork, and each kitchen I have managed embraces this principle not just as a value, but as a fundamental mission; we truly became a family, working together rhythmically, where everyone respected and lifted each other through the bustling times of service.

Transitioning to Eden Roc Resorts represents an incredible opportunity to engage in an environment that emphasizes outstanding service, where my leadership will cultivate positivity that invigorates the team, ensuring every plate served radiates excellence and every experience embodies unforgettable joy.

I look forward to the possibility of contributing my culinary passion to your team.

Thanks,

Savannah Hutchi
