SUMMARY

Commercial Analyst with more than four years translating sales, pricing, margin, compensation, and resource-allocation data into practical decisions for commercial leadership. Builds scenario models across large datasets, compares modeled and actual performance, and turns year-over-year and run-rate findings into clear recommendations. Advanced Excel, Power Query, SQL, Tableau, Power BI, Python, and Alteryx support dependable forecasting, reporting, and data-quality workflows. Partners with Sales, IS, and Finance on reporting requirements, business definitions, source-data issues, and timely management visibility. Evaluates AI-enabled analytics tools through controlled pilots and communicates complex financial logic in concise language for analysts and executives. Ready to help Northstar MedTech Solutions strengthen commercial planning, improve reporting accuracy, and connect financial insight with better sales decisions.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Commercial Analyst

Summit Surgical Supply Co.  January 2025 - Present  Columbus, OH

- Owns commercial scenario modeling, management reporting, forecasting pilots, and performance analysis for a multi-region sales portfolio. Leads work with Sales, IS, and Finance, helping leaders connect pricing, cost, margin, compensation, and resource decisions with financial results.
- Built pricing and margin scenarios for annual planning, clarifying tradeoffs across multi-region sales portfolios.
 - Presented modeled-versus-actual reviews using variance analysis, guiding territory and resource-allocation decisions.
 - Rebuilt sales reports with Power Query, SQL, and Power BI, replacing manual spreadsheet consolidation.
 - Piloted AI-enabled forecasting tools through controlled scenarios, comparing traceability, usability, and output quality.
 - Created year-over-year and run-rate analyses, giving leadership consistent views of projected and realized outcomes.
 - Partnered with IS and Finance on source-data issues, reporting requirements, and dashboard accuracy improvements

Commercial Analyst

Blue Ridge Diagnostics  July 2023 - December 2024  Cincinnati, OH

- Developed commercial models, queries, and executive reporting for sales reviews and annual operating plans. Connected customer, product, pricing, cost, territory, and resource data with Finance-controlled definitions so leaders could act on consistent performance signals.
- Developed Excel and Tableau models combining customer, product, pricing, and cost data for planning.
 - Built SQL queries for sales management, validating joins and aggregation logic against Finance totals.
 - Measured territory trends and resource utilization through run-rate analysis, identifying segments needing leadership review.
 - Prepared pricing scenarios quantifying contract, incentive, and base-cost effects across priority product groups.
 - Standardized revenue and margin definitions with Sales Operations, IS, and Finance, reducing reporting conflicts.
 - Translated multi-variable findings into executive presentations, separating timing effects from structural performance changes

Sales Analytics Associate

HarborPoint Medical Distribution  January 2022 - June 2023  Louisville, KY

Supported regional account teams through weekly sales and financial analysis, recurring reporting, scenario work, and data-quality reviews. Coordinated competing requests across Sales, IS, and Finance while keeping management views accurate, timely, and easy to interpret.

MY CAREER

- Senior Commercial Analyst at Summit Surgical Supply Co. (1.7 Years)
- Commercial Analyst at Blue Ridge Diagnostics (1.4 Years)
- Sales Analytics Associate at HarborPoint Medical Distribution (1.4 Years)

- Maintained weekly sales analysis with CRM extracts, invoices, and product data in Excel workbooks.
- Created Power Query transformations and quality checks for recurring territory, customer, and product reports.
- Supported pricing, cost, margin, and compensation scenarios by documenting assumptions and reconciling outputs.
- Produced year-over-year summaries explaining volume, mix, and timing drivers behind commercial performance changes.
- Used SQL and Tableau to build management views of pipeline activity and resource utilization.
- Coordinated discrepancy reviews with Sales, IS, and Finance during established planning cycles

PROJECTS

Commercial Forecasting Pilot 📅 2025

Evaluated AI-enabled forecasting and reporting workflows through controlled scenarios. Compared output quality, traceability, usability, and fit with planning decisions before recommending adoption.

Sales Reporting Governance 📅 2024

Created shared reporting definitions across revenue, margin, active accounts, and resource utilization. Connected SQL validation with Tableau and Power BI management views.
