SUMMARY

Dynamic Forward Deployed Engineer with over 5 years of experience in developing AI-driven solutions and cloud technologies. Adept at architecting systems that bridge client needs with innovative software solutions. Proven ability to lead technical discussions and deploy complex systems in fast-paced environments, continually embracing challenges to ensure enterprise-level implementations meet performance and security standards. By collaborating closely with clients, created tailored strategies for integrating advanced AI applications into existing infrastructures, optimizing both functionality and security. Recognized for balancing hands-on technology deployment with a strategic vision that enhances operational outcomes in targeted industries.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Forward Deployed Engineer

January 2022 - Present

Cloud Solutions Corp.

Chicago, IL

Lead the design and implementation of AI solutions integrated within customer environments, ensuring enhanced operational efficiencies while maintaining compliance with security standards.

- Spearheaded the architecture and deployment of custom AI systems tailored for diverse client applications, increasing system reliability.
- Conducted in-depth technical discovery sessions with clients to align project goals with corporate objectives, improving relationship building.
- Developed robust evaluation pipelines and monitoring frameworks that bolstered performance metrics for AI-driven solutions.
- Identified common field issues related to AI deployment, proposing actionable enhancements that positively influenced future technology stacks.

Mid-Level Software Engineer

June 2019 - December 2021

Innovative Tech Systems

San Francisco, CA

Focused on developing scalable AI models and supporting cloud system architecture while engaging customers for iterative feedback on product enhancements.

- Engineered diverse AI models contributing significantly to overall system capabilities, enhancing opportunities for integration.
- Collaborated with cross-functional teams to troubleshoot integration challenges, facilitating smoother deployments and improved user experiences.
- Participated actively in client communication loops, gathering valuable insights that informed ongoing product strategy refinement.
- Pioneered best practices for data handling within cloud platforms which increased the overall efficiency of deployed solutions.

LEADERSHIP & AWARDS

- Recognized as Employee of the Month for exceptional performance in delivering complex AI integration projects.
- Achieved honors during a company-wide hackathon focused on innovative AI solutions.
