Hiring Manager
Loyola Health Services
Chicago, IL

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am thrilled to apply for the Home Care Registered Nurse position at Loyola Health Services, as the opportunity resonates with my dedication to compassionate care while aligning perfectly with my professional expertise in home health nursing and acute care environments.

With over four years of experience, I have provided exemplary nursing services, ensuring that patients receive individualized care plans that blend clinical skills with the personal touch that each unique situation requires, allowing them to thrive in their own homes.

At Caring Hands Home Health, I delivered tailored health assessments and collaborated with healthcare teams, focusing on patients' needs while seamlessly integrating advanced technology, which created lasting positive impacts on their health and well-being.

I remember a time when adjusting care plans on the fly for a patient recovering from surgery led to a surprising turnaround; their gratitude further strengthened my commitment to individualized patient care.

I appreciate how Loyola Health Services prioritizes patient-centered care and supports their staff through ongoing education and community involvement, which aligns with my own values of collaboration and dedication to improving health outcomes.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Brooklyn Ballara
