STRENGTHS

- 👥 HR Service Support
Mapped requests from intake through resolution during a capstone. Small workflow changes made follow up clearer for everyone.
- 👥 Recruiting Coordination
Built candidate messages and interview steps for hourly roles. Classmates often relied on this sequence when timelines shifted.
- 🗣️ Employee Engagement
Reviewed pulse survey themes and shaped recognition ideas. Presenting findings helped turn scattered feedback into useful discussion.
- ⚙️ Process Improvement
Compared current and future workflows in a student lab. Participant feedback led to clearer instructions and fewer confusing steps.
- 🗣️ Professional Communication
Presented recommendations to faculty and peers, then revised work after feedback. Conversations became more focused and practical.

MY CAREER

MONTHS

Completed a supervised semester project simulating HR support for hourly plant roles, including recruiting coordination, employee relations, retention, and outreach planning.

- Simulated hourly plant recruiting through job criteria, candidate screening, interview scheduling, and onboarding tasks.
- Created candidate messages for application acknowledgments, interview coordination, selection updates, and pre start information.
- Reviewed attendance and workplace concern scenarios, identifying documentation needs and appropriate escalation paths.
- Compared anonymized exit feedback with engagement responses, identifying retention themes without overstating conclusions.
- Presented recognition and community outreach recommendations, then revised workflows after peer and faculty feedback.

HR Process Improvement Team Member

Student Innovation Lab 📅 January 2025 to May 2025 📍 Denton, TX

Contributed to a supervised team simulation focused on simpler HR request tracking for a hypothetical industrial workplace, with emphasis on service quality and follow through.

- Documented current HR request steps and compared them with a simpler future workflow.
- Created intake fields and a shared spreadsheet log for ownership, categories, follow up, and completion.
- Tested a proposed support workflow with 18 student participants acting as employees and supervisors.
- Revised reference instructions after participant feedback revealed unclear terminology and recurring points of confusion.
- Demonstrated consistent intake and documentation practices that supported responsive employee service during team review.
