Holding an Associate's degree in Medical Coding, combined with certification as a Certified Professional Coder (CPC), expertise lies in medical terminology, anatomy, and physiology. Known for ensuring compliance with coding standards while facilitating accurate claims processing. Demonstrates ability to work independently and collaboratively within diverse teams. Committed to maintaining high quality and accuracy levels in every task performed, fostering positive relationships across healthcare environments.

EXPERIENCE

- Medical Coding Specialist
- Healthcare Solutions Inc.  June 2024 - Present  Columbia, SC
- Manage complex medical coding tasks, focusing on the assignment of standard codes in line with strict regulations and standards. Collaborate efficiently with healthcare teams to gather critical data supporting precise coding and successful claims submissions. Conduct thorough audits to identify coding errors and foster improvements. Actively contribute to training new coders, enhancing their skills and knowledge. Remain well-informed about current coding practices by attending continuous education sessions and workshops. Successfully juggle multiple projects under tight deadlines while ensuring total accuracy in billing matters.
- Accurately assign CPT and ICD codes to medical records following comprehensive guidelines and best practices.
 - Collaborated with physicians and healthcare staff directly, refining data collection methods to increase coding accuracy.
 - Performed audits on medical records, providing detailed feedback that drove quicker corrections of coding discrepancies.
 - Directed training sessions that improved team expertise, particularly among junior coders.
 - Monitored compliance with code updates through engagement with industry resources, including local and national coding boards.
 - Enhanced coding operations leading to efficient claims processing timelines, significantly reducing error rates.

Junior Medical Coder

- Health Systems Group  January 2023 - May 2024  Lexington, SC
- Assisted senior coders in managing medical coding assignments while developing foundational coding skills. Results-driven role focused on reviewing and assuring the integrity of coded data and medical documentation procedures. Engaged actively in collaborative meetings aimed at sharing insights on coding efficiency and bug fixes. Familiarized with various medical coding software tools to facilitate effective documentation management.
- Reviewed diagnostic reports thoroughly, confirming accuracy and completeness before processing.
 - Contributed to regular team discussions about coding improvements, fostering a sense of collaboration.
 - Supported more senior coders during audits with organized documentation and relevant citation referencing.
 - Utilized advanced coding software platforms effectively, streamlining surveys for claims benefit analyses.
 - Developed easy-to-understand coding reference materials, aiding peers' understanding of complex cases.
 - Fostered professional relationships with providers, bringing attention to missing information impacting funds.
