STRENGTHS

- Client Advocacy
During difficult negotiations, translated competing priorities into clear choices. Clients gained confidence and stayed engaged.
- Lead Follow-Up
A consistent CRM rhythm kept online prospects moving. Open-house contacts received timely next steps, not generic messages.
- Local Market Guidance
Used neighborhood data and real conversations to explain pricing. Buyers and sellers received practical context for decisions.
- Transaction Coordination
Tracked inspections, appraisals, and closing dates across many parties. Colleagues relied on organized updates when deadlines tightened.
- Collaborative Coaching
Shared consultation habits and market research with newer agents. Peers frequently sought advice before challenging client meetings.

SUMMARY

Licensed Realtor with more than four years guiding buyers and sellers through residential decisions across southeastern Wisconsin. Builds dependable lead pipelines through disciplined follow-up, referral networking, open houses, internet lead generation, and consultative conversations centered on client goals. Conducts buyer and seller consultations, comparative market analyses, property showings, listing presentations, offer negotiations, inspection coordination, and closing support. Uses CRM platforms, MLS systems, digital marketing tools, electronic transaction management, and virtual meeting technology for organized service and timely communication. Coaches newer agents, collaborates with lenders, inspectors, attorneys, title representatives, and cooperating agents, and contributes practical local-market insight. Ready to bring client care, sales discipline, networking energy, and self-directed business development to Lakeside Key Realty while helping more Wisconsin clients reach confident housing decisions.
