SUMMARY

Registered Dietitian Nutritionist with eight years supporting community nutrition, chronic disease prevention, physical activity education, and population health programs. Provides clear individual and group education, cooking demonstrations, movement guidance, workshops, and culturally responsive resources for diverse communities. Uses public health science, current nutrition research, assessment methods, and program data to shape services, monitor participation, prepare recurring reports, and guide practical improvements. Builds productive relationships with clinics, community centers, food access organizations, neighborhood groups, and multidisciplinary teams. Communicates in English and Spanish, addresses misinformation with respect, protects confidential information, and helps residents make informed health decisions. Experience with health equity, inclusion, outreach, presentations, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook supports dependable community programming and meaningful health outcomes.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Community Registered Dietitian

Vida Community Wellness Network 📅 June 2023 - Present 📍 San Antonio, Texas

Leads community nutrition and chronic disease prevention programming for adults and families across office, partner, and public settings. Guides education strategy, resource development, data review, partnership coordination, and confidential participant services.

- Led chronic disease classes with cooking demonstrations and movement guidance, improving practical participant learning.
- Created bilingual workshops and handouts for varied literacy levels and cultural food patterns.
- Reviewed attendance and referral data in Excel, shaping monthly, quarterly, and annual program reports.
- Built partnerships with clinics and food access groups, strengthening outreach participation across neighborhoods.
- Translated current nutrition research into updated lesson plans, demonstrations, and facilitator resources.
- Protected participant confidentiality across public events, office services, and partner coordination.

Community Registered Dietitian

South Texas Prevention Collaborative 📅 March 2021 - May 2023 📍 San Antonio, Texas

Delivered individual and group education focused on diabetes, cardiovascular risk, healthy weight, and practical meal planning. Coordinated outreach, partner communication, educational content, data review, and referrals supporting prevention services.

- Delivered diabetes and cardiovascular education through practical meal planning and group discussion.
- Planned neighborhood outreach calendars, adapting topics after partner feedback and community event observations.
- Created PowerPoint guides and cooking materials, translating nutrition science into actionable messages.
- Analyzed participation and outcome measures in Excel, identifying groups needing additional outreach.
- Addressed nutrition misinformation through respectful communication that strengthened trust and informed decisions.
- Coordinated referrals with health educators and organizations, reducing barriers to nutrition resources.

Registered Dietitian

Hill Country Health Education Center 📅 July 2019 - February 2021 📍 New Braunfels, Texas

STRENGTHS

- 👥 Community Education
Cooking sessions became easier to apply when lessons connected nutrition science with familiar foods and daily routines.
- ♥ Data Guided Programs
Participant records and feedback helped identify outreach gaps, giving program teams clearer next steps.
- ♥ Culturally Responsive Care
Bilingual resources and respect for food traditions helped families feel heard during difficult health decisions.
- 💬 Trusted Communication
When misinformation surfaced, calm evidence based answers helped participants ask better questions and stay engaged.
- 🤝 Partnership Building
Regular contact with clinics and neighborhood groups turned separate events into steadier referral pathways.
