SUMMARY

Senior Pricing Analyst with five years across commercial finance, FP&A, pricing strategy, and profitability analytics in consumer products and manufacturing. Advanced Excel expertise combines with Power BI, D365, Planful, financial modeling, customer profitability, SKU profitability, channel analysis, and AOP forecasting. Builds decision-ready reporting for Finance, Sales, Marketing, Operations, Supply Chain, Controllers, and executive leaders by connecting cost, volume, mix, trade, rebate, and price data with margin outcomes. Led governance routines, model improvements, deal evaluations, reporting automation, and cross-functional reviews supporting bids, new products, price changes, budgets, and forecasts. Microsoft Certified Power BI Data Analyst Associate with a Bachelor of Science in Finance. Ready to help Northstar Provisions strengthen pricing discipline, improve margin visibility, and turn commercial data into confident growth decisions.

EXPERIENCE

Senior Pricing Analyst

Lakeshore Pantry Brands 📅 January 2025 - Present 📍 Oak Brook, IL

Leads enterprise pricing and profitability analytics for a regional packaged-food portfolio. Owns customer, SKU, channel, and division models, Power BI reporting, D365 data integration, Planful assumptions, and governance reviews. Partners with commercial, operational, supply chain, and Finance leaders on margin expansion, bids, new products, price changes, AOP, forecasts, and executive decisions.

- Directed customer and SKU profitability analysis, giving leaders consistent visibility into margin drivers across channels.
- Built Power BI margin reporting from D365 sales, cost, freight, trade, and rebate data.
- Reworked advanced Excel models separating volume, mix, price, funding, and cost assumptions for stronger recommendations.
- Established pricing intake and approval cadence across Sales, Marketing, Operations, Supply Chain, and Controllers.
- Prepared pre-deal profitability scenarios and sensitivity analyses, clarifying revenue growth and contribution-margin tradeoffs.
- Coordinated Planful updates for AOP and forecasts, presenting pricing impacts during monthly and quarterly reviews.

Pricing Analyst

Midwest Harvest Foods 📅 June 2023 - December 2024 📍 Naperville, IL

Managed recurring pricing and profitability reporting across roughly 1,200 active SKUs and customer accounts. Built Excel and Power BI analysis for FP&A, Sales, and Marketing, while partnering with IT and Finance systems specialists on D365 validation, master data, automation, reporting consistency, and commercial decisions.

- Managed profitability reporting across 1,200 SKUs and accounts, reconciling D365 transactions with approved cost tables.
- Developed Excel models incorporating freight, overhead, deductions, and volume assumptions for FP&A planning cycles.
- Created Power BI dashboards showing price realization, mix, trade spending, and margin performance by account.
- Evaluated price changes and customer bids with scenario models documenting revenue, margin, and growth implications.
- Standardized pricing templates, data definitions, and close checklists, reducing reporting rework across business units.
- Partnered with IT and Finance specialists to validate D365 extracts, resolve master-data issues, and automate preparation.

LANGUAGES

MY CAREER

- Senior Pricing Analyst at Lakeshore Pantry Brands (1.7 Years)
- Pricing Analyst at Midwest Harvest Foods (1.5 Years)
- Financial Analyst at Prairie Crest Manufacturing (1.8 Years)

Supported FP&A for a food manufacturing operation through management reporting, product and customer profitability schedules, D365 reconciliations, Planful forecast templates, variance analysis, and documented reporting procedures. Connected production, inventory, labor, material cost, pricing, and allocation data with budget, forecast, and operational decisions.

- Consolidated sales, production, inventory, labor, and material costs into monthly management packages for plant leaders.
- Built Excel profitability schedules documenting allocation logic and assumptions used in budget and forecast reviews.
- Analyzed price, volume, mix, and input-cost movement, giving Operations and Sales a shared margin explanation.
- Maintained D365 reconciliations and source controls, strengthening SKU, customer, and channel reporting confidence.
- Prepared Planful forecast templates and updated pricing assumptions under FP&A direction for scheduled AOP cycles.
- Wrote SOPs for recurring analyses, enabling consistent handoffs and faster onboarding for new finance analysts.

PROJECTS

Enterprise Pricing Governance Framework 📅 2026

Strong pricing decisions start with clear facts and ownership. Created a scalable governance framework with intake templates, approval paths, review cadence, escalation rules, and documented SOPs for cross-functional pricing decisions.

Customer Margin Intelligence Model 📅 2025

Clear insight creates confident action. Built a customer and product margin model linking D365 data, allocations, trade, freight, rebates, and cost assumptions for channel-level profitability reviews.
