Dear Hiring Manager

I am excited to apply for the Transaction Tax Compliance Intern role at Brighton Consulting Group. This position complements my skills while fueling my fervor for accounting, enabling me to bolster compliance efforts and optimize processes.

In my current role at Brighton Financial Services, my responsibility is managing tax returns and client documentation. I have discovered nuances with tax regulations, which presents constant challenges. Collaborating with a dedicated team helps me overcome difficulties, fostering a robust understanding of compliance.

During my internship at Greenfield Accounting Firm, I amassed invaluable experience in supporting accountants. Finding clarity in complex tax filings was sometimes confusing. Nevertheless, this struggle amplified my problem-solving skills and intensified my commitment to precision.

As I look towards my degree completion in Accounting from the University of Illinois, I remain eager to augment my practical experience. My solid foundation in Excel, Word, and PowerPoint complements my passion for meticulous compliance efforts which are essential for success in this internship.

I appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Travis Pearson
